A short period of very heavy rain and squally winds likely to cause some disruption.

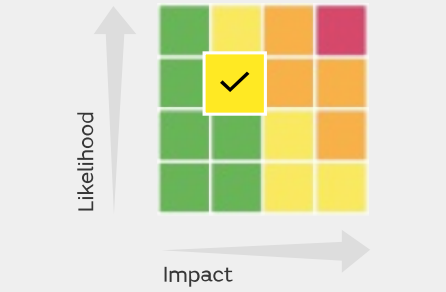
What to expect

- Some delays to road, rail, air and ferry transport are likely
- Bus and train services probably affected with journey times taking longer
- Spray and temporary flooding on roads probably making journey times longer
- Delays for high-sided vehicles on exposed routes and bridges likely
- Some short term loss of power and other services is possible

Further details

A band of rain and gusty winds will move east during Monday evening. For most this will simply be a period of normal, unpleasant autumn conditions. However, for some a short period of very heavy rain and very strong winds is possible bringing gusts of 50-60 mph temporarily and perhaps 70 mph on some exposed coasts as well as 20 mm of rain within an hour.

There is also a chance of hail and lightning in a few places as an additional hazard.



✓ Medium likelihood of low impacts
